Minneapolis After Big Fight Plans for Willard Bout; Defeats Tufts Miller Denies Deal Closed

In Fast Game Arena of Circus Seats May Be Used for Heavyweight Title Battle

CHICAGO, April 17 .- Colonel J. C. Miller, promoter of the Jess Willard-Fred Fulton fight, denied to-night that Chubby Abbott is centre fielder on arrangements had been completed to he Fordham nine. Three days ago he stage the bout in Minneapolis. Colonel was a mere substitute, but in the Miller declared that he had been in shake-up of the Maroon team last negotiation with Minneapolis, but no Tuesday Chubby was placed in centre contracts had yet been signed. He declared that he had received offers from a while, for Chubby made good with vengeance yesterday, getting a home other cities, but assured his inquirers run to right field in the opening inning of the Tufts game, with the bases filled, and enabling the Bronx collegians to win by a score of 4 to 1.

The game was fast throughout and was marked by excellent twirling on the part of O'Mara and McQuade, the opposing moundsmen. Each team obtained only three bingles. McQuade fanned nine and O'Mara caused seven Marcon batters to whiff.

The New Englanders scored one in the seventh inning. MINNEAPOLIS, April 17.—Robert Seiberlich, chairman of the State Box-Sciberlich, chairman of the State Boxing Commission, announced to-night that the proposed Jess Willard and Fred Fulton bout would be staged in this city on July 4. The commissioner stated that a special arena midway between St. Paul and Minneapolis would be erected for the occasion.

According to Seiberlich, the rule prohibiting the naming of a winner will be waived, but the bout will be limited to ten rounds.

Seiberlich made the statement after holding a telephone conversation with Colonel Miller, who was in Chicago. It is planned to ship from Chicago some 20,000 circus seats, and when the arena is completed it is expected to seat over 35,000 persons. The articles were said to have been signed in Chicago a short time ago, and by the agreement Willard was to receive $75,000 and Fulton $20,000.

Erasmus Hall Sluggers Win From St. Francis Prep.

Erasmus Hall won a heavy hitting contest from St. Francis Prep, 9 to 6, yesterday afternoon on the Parade Grounds. The downfall of the Butter Street men, who hit safely fourteen times, was due to their inability to bunch their slams. St. Francis took a short lived lead, which Erasmus tied in the second inning and overtook in the fourth.

After a fast double play had prevented more scoring by Erasmus in the eighth, V. Botling laced the ball for a home run. St. Francis lost its chance in the ninth, when the last man fanned with the bases full.

Miss Wanamaker's Horse Is Disqualified at Show

Oh, trenchant Silvey pen! Yes, your inspired words bring it all back to us. Ah, happy, happy hours of innocent childhood, when we used to sit up on our little high chair and gurgle at the pretty prizefighters as they painted each other with the brightest, reddest colors, using each other's pretty noses as a paint boxes and their gloves as brushes. How sweet is youth!

Instead of hitching a runabout to the gelding he tackled him to a knockabout, and the judges, seeing the breach of the rules, quickly gave Miss Wanamaker the gate. There was a buzz all around, for nobody knew why the fair contender drove out with a dash. She took discolors, using each other's pretty noses as paint boxes and their gloves as brushes.
